

A woman has a right to be positive on matters which are matters of personal knowledge and experience. Every woman who has used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for diseases of the womanly organs is positive as to its wonderful curative value, and confidently recommends it to similar sufferers.

Women who suffer from inflammation, ulceration, female weakness, or nervous diseases caused by disease of the womanly organs will find a complete cure by the use of "Favorite Prescription."

"Several years ago I suffered severely from female weakness, prolapsus, and menorrhagia, and used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription with splendid effect," writes Faunic Shelton, of Washington, Iowa. "Glad I have not needed it for a few years past, but if I should have any return of the old trouble would surely try 'Pavorite Prescription.' I have recommended it to a number of my lady friends. I always tell them to try a bottle, and if they are not benefited by it I will pay for the medicine. In every case they have spoken in praise of it."

WASHINGTON LETTER

[Special Correspondence.] The visit of Secretary Root and Adjutant General Corbin to the Philippines will be planned so as to enable them to reach Manila about the 1st of July, when the military government is turned over to the civil officers.

Both Mr. Root and General Corbin are very anxious to acquaint themselves with the actual conditions existing in the Philippines and feel that they can learn more in a month of personal inspection than can be obtained by reading masses of correspondence General Corbin has long been anxious to get out to the islands, but has been detained here by the pressure of official business. It is believed when the new army appointments shall have been made there will be a full in the routine work and that his desk, which is always laden with business, can be managed by the officers of his bureau.

General Corbin said recently that he should be very glad of an opportunity to go to the Philippines, and while he could not say definitely whether the trip would be possible he hoped to so arrange his affairs as to be able to un-

Senator Hanna and the Arab.

A Washington street arab has sucessfully tried a new form of soothsaying on Senator Hanna. It strengthens the adage that all men are susceptible to flattery.

Mr. Hanna and Colonel Dick were standing in front of the Hanna mansion, which adjoins a theater. The two statesmen were talking and looking at some of the faraway stars when the boy came up and said to Senator

"Say, mister, can't you give me a onss to your show to see you act?" When it became apparent to Senator Hanna that the boy was paying the limit of a compliment in mistaking him BALTIMORE, FREDERICKSBURG AND for an actor, he began laughing. As he dived into his trousers pocket he said: "I am not an actor, bub, but here is omething equally as good' as a pass." The senator gave the boy a shining half dollar and, turning to Representative Dick, said:

"That is a new joke on me. I have been mistaken for a theatrical manager, but never before taken for an

Away All Summer. After the 29th of April, on which day the president leaves for the Pacific slope, he will spend very little time in Washington until next fall.

The trip to the west will occupy six weeks. Upon returning to Washington the president will almost immediately leave for New England to attend the commencements of Wellesley and Harvard universities and to be the guest of Senator Hoar. He will stay two or three days with Mr. Hoar, dur ing which time some interesting ex cursions to historic places near Worces ter will be undertaken. The president will then become the guest of Sen ator McMillan at Manchester-by-the Sea and later will go to Hingham, the home of Secretary Long, where he will spend the Fourth of July. If the president returns to Washing ton from his New England trip, it will be only for a brief stop. He proposes to reach Canton as soon as possible and will remain there until fall.

The commissioner of internal revenue has held that a legacy for literary, charitable or educational uses on which tax was not paid prior to March 1, 1901, is exempt from tax. This de cision was made in the case of a legacy to the Philadelphia School of De

The commissioner has also accepted the ruling of the United States circuit court of appeals for the ninth cir-cuit, to the effect that "goods are offered for sale" at the place-where they are kept for sale and where a sale may be effected. They are not offered for sale elsewhere by sending abroad an agent with samples or by establishing an office for the purpose of taking orders. Tax on Tobacco and Cigars. The commissioner has issued rules and regulations concerning taxes on tobacco, cigars and cigarettes and relating to rebate of taxes on tobacco, snuff and eigars held by manufacturers and dealers on the 1st day of July under the act of March 2. A new series of internal revenue stamps will be prepared and issued for the payment of taxes or cigars and small cigarettes at the nev These stamps will not be sold or delivered to manufacturers or importers of cigars prior to July 1.

Shafer After Michael's Scalp. "Any part of a thousand," a cry well known to followers of racing in the past, will again be heard, for old Dave Shafer is back in the game. The most curious part of his return is that he is after Michael's scalp, and he intends to get it with Eddie McDuffle, the old and signed with Dave Shafer. Michael was fairly successful during the season of 1897 and wound up with a large sum of money to his credit under Shafer's management. The following year was a disastrons one for the Weish midget. Michael was still under Shafer's control. Me-Duffie defeated him soundly, and Michael's actions so aroused Shafer's ire that he resolved to "get even" with out west for two years, but he is now on his way east to obtain his revenge. It is a curious condition of affairs and fully illustrates the changes that time has wrought. In the past Shafer fought McDuffle with Michael and now would defent Michael with McDuffle.

Rusie Goes to Cincinnati. Amos Rusic, at one time the greatest pitcher in the country, has signed to play with the Cincinnati team. Last cason Rusic did not play, but he claims to have kept in good condition. He was released by New York last season. His reason for not playing

The Best Remedy for Rheumatism.

QUICK RELIEF FROM PAIN.

All who use Chamberlain's Pain Palm for rheumatism are delighted with the quick relief from pain which it affords. When speaking of this Mr. D. N. Sinks, of Troy, Ohio, says: "Some time ago I had a severe attack of rheumatism in my arm and shoulder. I tried numerous remedies but got no relief until I was recommended by Messrs. Geo. F. Parsons & Co., druggist of this place, to try Chamberlain's Pain Palm. They recommended it so highly that I bought a bottle. I was soon relieved of all pain. I have since recommended this liminent to many of my friends, who agreed with me that it is the best remedy for muscular rheumatism in the market." QUICK RELIEF FROM PAIN.

FOR THE CHILDREN

Egg Rolling at the White House. In The Woman's Home Companion Waldon Fawcett gives a lively de scription of the children's egg rolling carnival which takes place every year in the president's yard:

"The event of the day, the climax looked forward to by the older folks as well as the juvenile visitors, comes when the president, who has from time to time all day peeped out at the glad to the sea of little upturned faces. triotic air the youngsters all shout lutily and clap their hands and as likely as not testify their appreciation is some of these unique, unconventional ways so dear to the hearts of youth and which are prone to make the dig nitary on the portico laugh outright Mrs. McKinley, whose love for the lit Eck. He had varying success that the ones is warm and earnest, usually sits almost all day Easter Monday at one of the south windows of the White House watching with smiling interest this gigantic frolic of the romping children. Usually a number of he acquaintances spend the day with her sharing in the enjoyment of the nove spectacle.

"The one element of seriousn which characterizes this great outing you may discover as you stroll down to the little building which ordinarily serves as a 'central station' for the po licemen who guard the White Hous grounds. For this one day, however the watchmen's house is transformed into an asylum for lost little folks. Hither the big blue coated officers bring the little tots who chance to go astray in the great medley of human ty and here a nurse soothes and con forts the tiny weeper until the inevita ble auxious mother appears. At the last egg rolling festival there were 27 lost children' in the little habitation at one time."

A Tiger Story. If not interfered with, the tiger will enerally run from rather than attack man. A writer in The Field tells a story of how, having sent his guns and luncheon on before him, his attention was arrested by a rustle in the jungle, and, looking that way, he saw a tiger, crouched low, coming rapidly toward him. He says: "My first feeling was one of horror, for it seemed all up with me, the tiger being very close and in a rush. Of course it was him if it took a lifetime. Shafer went but the pony, that he wanted, but had he knocked out the latter his own fe at finding a man under him wou was but one thing to be done-viz, to put a bold front on it and try to frighten him, and I therefore instantly wheeled the pony's head directly to ward him, shouting at the same mo ment. The tiger stopped short and stared at me, but he did not offer to retrent. I then moved the pony to-ward him, shouting loudly as I did so, and the tiger then turned his tail to > and stared at me. "I was naturally desirous of with drawing from an interview so unple ant to me in my unarmed condition. therefore rode straight in at the tiger waving my arm and sternly ordering him off, and before I reached him he decided to move himself, this time somewhat hastily and in marked contrast to his previous orderly not to say dignified retreat, and, having at last routed him, I lost no time in cantering over the remaining portion of the jun me, and, having retired about 30 yards

he sat bolt upright on his haunche

gle cart track to the highroad." Chinese Children's Games.

It is interesting while American boys enjoying their enjoyment the children of other countries have. Chinese boys and girls, for instance, have their games that they play with just as much enthusiasm as do their American cousins. One of these is "the hawk catching young chickens." The children stand one be hind the other, having the largest boy to protect them from the hawk. The hawk, the child who, as we say in most games, is "It," comes to eatch the chick ens, but the line swings back and forth and the protector keeps between the brood and the hawk. Another game is "pointing at the moon or stars." The children form themselves into a ring. with one of their number blindfolded in the center. The ring moves around, the players singing. The ring stops, and the boy in the center points. The person toward whom he points must take his place blindfolded in the center.

Natural Cook Stoves.

In New Zealand there is a region abounding in hot springs, some them of wonderful volume and each differing from all the others in the nature of its water. The natives us these springs to cook their food, for the water is so hot that vegetables, eggs or meat placed therein are soon ready for the table. The little Maoris, or natives, delight to bathe in the wathe locality are very healthy, and it is anid the medicinal qualities of the water from the hot springs tend to keep them so.

> My Temper. I have a little temper;
> "Tis like my pony gray-Unless I watch it closely It tries to get away And rear and kick and trample On all who near it stand, And so I try to curb it And hold it by the hand, No good to use a snaffle; I keep a tight curb rein And speak to it quite gently, Yet sometimes all in vain.

It is so much the stronger It gets away from me,
But I will be its master
Some day, as you will see!

Marion Kooke, manager for T. M. Thompson, a large importer of fine millinery at 1658 Milwaukee Avenue, Chieago, says: "During the late severe weather I caught a dreadful cold which kept me awake at night and made me unfit to attend my to work during the day. One of my milliners was taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a severe cold at that time, which seemed to relieve her so quickly that I bought some for myself. It acted like magic and I began to improve at ones. I am now entirely well and feel very pleased to acknowledged its merits." For sale by M. M. Lewis.

Rheumatism 9

Rheumatism is due to an excess of acid in the blood. When this escapes through the pores of the skin, as it often does, it produces some form of skin eruption—some itching disease like Eczema or Tetter—but when these little tubes or sweat glands are suddenly closed by exposure to cold and sudden chilling of the body, then the poisons thrown off by the blood, finding no outlet, settle in membranes, muscles, tissues and nerves. These parts become greatly inflamed, feverish and hot; dagger-like, maddening pains follow in quick succession, the muscles become extremely tender, the nerves break down and the sufferer is soon reduced to a state of helplessness and misery. This acid poison penetrates the joints and seems to dry out the natural oils, and the legs, arms and fingers become so stiff and sore that every movement is attended with excruciating pains.

Liniments, plasters, electricity and baths, while their use may give temporary ease, cannot be called cures, for the disease returns with every change of the weather. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism by

"Three years ago I had a severe attack of la grippe, which left me almost a physical wreck. To add to my wretched condition, a severe form of Rheumatism developed. I tried all the physicians in our city, but none of them could do me any permanent good. I used all the rheumatic cures I could hear of, but received no benefit. After beginning S. S. B. I was relieved of the pains and have gained in fissh and strength and my general health is better than for years. I consider S. S.
